ANAC SELECTION SHOW Judge Critique

I would like to congratulate each of you who entered art-work in the ANAC Selection show. Not just those whose work was chosen to go on to the State Conference, but ALL of you. It takes guts to put your art-work "out there" and subject it, and yourself, to critique! As artist Henri Matisse once said, "Creativity takes courage!" So, well done, all of you.

ANAC
Conference
2012
June 13-16,
Aurora, NE.

As the judge for this year's selection show, I was impressed by an array of 39 works in a wide variety of media and styles. None of you should be too distraught in not "winning," but alas, only 14 works could advance. I have always believed that if the same show was viewed by a different judge, awards would likely be different! I humbly submit my choices, and will share with you a little of my thought process in making these selections. First, I viewed the entire collection, and made a note of my initial reactions to each piece. I then looked at each work, and discerned the "why" of that response. Basically, it came down to this:

1. Did the piece make me want to look longer?
2. Was the work, in whatever medium, well executed, and neatly presented?
3. Was the composition well planned, and conducive to guiding the eye throughout the work?
4. Were there any elements that were a distraction?

Thanks for the opportunity to judge your club's ANAC selection show, I am honored. You have quite the talented group! Good luck to those of you advancing to the State level, and I hope to see some of your work in the next Traveling Show!

Respectfully submitted, Barbara Gehringer

Barb Linder Watercolor Award:

Barb Linder, a longtime member of Omaha Artists, Inc. She was a watercolorist, so to recognize her and her generosity; the club will be giving out a "Barb Linder Watercolor Award" at all upcoming shows, for the next four years. The winner will receive a ribbon and a $50 award. This award can be given to an artist who has already won one of the regular awards. It is to be given to the best watercolor painting in each show.

Judge's Recognition Awards:

The Art Show Committee has decided to allow the judge at each show to give out up to 4 "Judge's Recognition" awards for those art pieces that were close to winning one of the moneyed awards. These pieces will be recognized with a label signifying "Judge's Recognition Award".

Reminder ARTISTS: The Art Show Committee has decided to allow art work from art workshops, funshops, etc. as long as you have done the entire work yourself, and it is 100% original. Sometimes, we are at workshops and do the work ourselves, using what we learn at the workshop, but the piece is our original work. We think it is unfair to bar this type of art. If you have any questions, please feel free to call anyone on the art committee.

"The Country Life" Art Show at the Washington County Museum will be held again this year in August exclusively for Omaha Artists, Inc. members. The show has a rural theme, and artists may bring pieces that have been hung in OA shows in the past. There is no two-year time frame for completion of the work. You may bring prints and note cards for sale as well. The judge will be Milt Heinrich. For dates and details see the entry form in this newsletter.
