President's Message: by Carolyn Ransom 402-250-8911

Dear Friends,

So sorry I could not come to the April Meeting. Believe me it was MY loss! Sometimes the practical things of life must take precedence over desires. Moving to a home has so many "little" things involved!

This month I would like to let you know that I am accepting nominations for the JASKIW AWARD. This is a very special honor given to a member who has demonstrated outstanding service and inspiration to Omaha Artists, Inc. This can only be given once during a member's lifetime. Please think about those who have faithfully and tirelessly given of themselves to OAI. Email me at CarolynRansom5@cox.net or call at 402 250-8911 with your nominations. This special award will be presented at our June meeting. Working overtime now at Mulhalls and moving to a new place has been demanding. Yet as I was moving furniture in a room the other day, a chance glance out the window revealed a pretty little red finch. Just for that moment I was filled with appreciation for its tiny beauty. And later I heard the telltale call of an irritated Blue Jay. It only takes a moment to step away from the day's chaos and be renewed by the beauty around us!

"Think of all the beauty still around you and be happy."

Art Shows and Art Shows

Chair: Sharon Clawson 572-8486

GOOD NEWS - WE WILL BE AT THE HOT SHOPS 1301 GALLERY NEXT OCTOBER!!!
The theme for the show will be: "The Illustrated Song". For this theme, find some lyrics to a song that you would like to illustrate - (up to 150 words) - it could be the chorus, or a verse - and you will again have to do some typing - type up the title to the song along with the words that you are illustrating, so we can print this up and put next to your piece of art. This should not feel too restrictive - after all, there are so many themes - but it should be a fun way to come up with ideas for your art.

GOOD NEWS FOR SPRING, 2014 - Instead of being at The Designers, we will have a show at Lauritzen Gardens in May of 2014! There has to be a botanical expression in your artwork for this show - whether it be a true botanical rendering, or a garden scene, or a landscape - some type of plant life must be in the depiction. We are excited to have a show at the prestigious Omaha Botanical Gardens!

Omaha Artists, Inc.
Third Annual "Artists in Residence" Art Show
at The Designers Furniture Store
12123 Emmet Street (across the street from Mulhall's)

Registration: May 14, 11 - 1 p.m.
Reception: May 15, 5 - 8 p.m.
Take Down: June 3, 11 - 1 p.m.

Cost: $15 for up to 3 pieces - PLEASE NOTE - The Designers will take a 25% commission on each piece sold, so price your pieces accordingly

Please make sure each piece follows the art show rules as written in the O.A.I. roster - THE MAIN ITEMS TO THINK ABOUT - USE SCREW EYES OR D-RINGS WITH WIRE FOR HANGERS, CANVAS EDGES SHOULD NOT SHOW ANY STAPLES AND BE PAINTED IF LEFT UNFRAMED, FRAMES AND MATS MUST BE CLEAN, NO PIECE THAT HAS ALREADY BEEN ENTERED IN AN O.A.I. ART SHOW CAN BE SHOWN AGAIN, AND ALL ART MUST HAVE BEEN COMPLETED WITHIN THE LAST TWO YEARS.

QUESTIONS? please call Sharon Clawson - 572-8486, or any of the art show committee (see your roster for a list of committee members)

Judge Allen Vap’s Comments:

While selecting pieces for the ANAC Exhibit I found a wide variety of approaches. There were realistic traditional subjects to abstract visual messages and tight controlled demonstrations to lose free strokes of color. This made for a challenging selection process. I found the individual approaches to be refreshing and I applaud all who participated.
