President's Message: Katrina Methot-Swanson 402-932-0509

Hello Omaha Artists,

We have a lot planned for October. On October 14 Carol Coppi will be teaching "hand designs" to ESL students along with other volunteers from the Omaha Artists Inc. There will be a reception for the "Small Image" art show at Esprit Whispering Ridge on October 15th. On October 21st the Fun Shop will feature Linda Bennett where she will teach a class on alcohol inks with a Zentangle twist. Our October 28th Luncheon at Westside Community Center will feature Kim Hawks from Kimba's Touch Pottery.

I would like to encourage members to connect on Facebook through our face book page <https://www.facebook.com/OmahaArtistsInc?fref=ts>. It's a good way to promote our shows and to make art connections. Several artists post pictures of work they have done and it can be a fun way to connect.

Bio for Judge of 2015 Fall Small Image Show

Richard Markoff grew up in Alliance, graduating from Alliance High School before attending Doane College and Chadron State College where he earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree.

He taught high school art for 37 years in Rocky Ford, Colorado, McCook and at Omaha Northwest. Markoff was a founding member of the Gallery 13 in Omaha in 1985 and has been an active member of the Artists' Cooperative Gallery in Omaha's Old Market for many years serving as a board member and on the Hanging Committee and Membership Committee. Additionally he is an associate member of the Burkholder Project in Lincoln.

"I consider myself a series painter. Having taught school for 37 years, I have had to use different styles of painting in my teaching; therefore I have continued to do so through the years. I paint ten to fifteen paintings per series from surrealism to modern abstract utilizing acrylic and mixed media. I am a stern advocate of art elements and all my judging reflects that belief."
